Governor Dummer Academy

Byfield, Massachusetts

THE 1980 MILESTONE DEDICATION

Governor Dummer Academy's history is distinguished by men and women whose commitment to education through development of mind, body, and spirit of their students has prodded them to dedicate their lives to the growth of the many boys and girls who have passed through the Academy during its 217 years of service.

Educated in the classics and law at Harvard University, one such master joined the Governor Dummer faculty in 1947 as instructor of history and civics and dormitory master of Commons II. During his thirty-three year tenure here, he has been a quiet, unassuming, and invaluable teacher, coach and administrator. For the many students whom he has taught in class or coached in lacrosse, basketball, football or golf, he has inspired love and respect. He has served as a compassionate Director of Admissions, Administrative Coordinator, Master-in-Charge and President of the Board of Directors of the Secondary School Admission Testing Service. The mention of his name invokes a warm smile from Governor Dummer graduates.

Though this dedication is our way of honoring him, it cannot really capture the true essence of the man which is reflected in the fruits of his labors as seen in the enriched quality of the life of his students, colleagues and the Academy.

We, therefore, take great pleasure in dedicating
THE 1980 MILESTONE to our teacher, coach and friend,

John J. Witherspoon

The following excerpts are from the Commencement address delivered by John J. Weatherspoon. We recommend occasional rereading for all.

As I pondered about a theme for this talk, it came to me that I might make a virtue of my uncertainty and insecurity about it, for insecurity is something we all experience, something we all have in common.

. . . There are the big general ones, of course, nuclear bombs and inflation and fuel shortages, which may already have restricted some of you freer spirits who have drivers' licenses, and the various problems and paradoxes which Dr. Davis enumerated at the Baccalaureate Service yesterday. He and I both come to the same conclusion - that we are living in troubled times. And if he said it and I say it, it must be true. At the same time, I am sure Dr. Davis will agree that Commencement speakers have probably been making that statement ever since the first Commencement, whenever that was.

But if the universal troubles of the times lack immediacy for you, I am sure that more personal concerns do not. The acoustics over there in the French Building are excellent, and on those rare occasions when I am not totally immersed in concentration on my work, I hear a good deal about what is concerning you. "Why do I never get any mail?" "That test that so and so gave us was unfair," "What should I tell Jack if Bill asks me?" "I don't know what I'm going to do for a career when I get out of college." "So and so hates me."

. . . mankind throughout history has sought peace of mind, security. In the days before the current Ancient History course, we studied Anthropology and learned that early man travelled in bands to provide security and protection.

A good sweeping generalization - society exists to provide security for its individual members - is all very well, but it is not very helpful when we are faced with our own personal problems. At this point you may well say, "OK, Mr. Witherspoon, having got yourself in this deep, what do we do? What is the answer?" My honest answer, of course, is, "I don't know", and I feel insecure about saying so because I have yet to hear of anyone who has an answer which will work for all of us. If I had one, I would promptly fix everything for you here and now, then walk on down the surface of the Parker River to take care of things on Plum Island and proceed on across the Atlantic to straighten out Europe.

. . . you are not alone. Everyone from time immemorial has had anxieties, else why so much folk wisdom on the subject. You are bound to feel uncertain in some situations, and you really must not blame yourselves for not being perfect because - who is?

. . . The fact is that there are some insecurities that you simply must face, with which you must live. If you go along with Socrates - Ancient History students take note - and know thyself, you will find that there are some things about your make-up that you just can't fix no matter how hard you try. You can adjust or adapt or avoid, but sometimes you just have to accept a given weakness. The other side of this coin is that you find that you can accept, that you can carry on. Surviving one time of trouble seems to toughen us for the next.

Though it is perhaps inappropriate to use a four letter word after speaking of religion, and particularly inappropriate since it is a word that you have heard time and again all during your career at Governor Dummer, Mr. Dalton's memory forces me to utter it just once more. The word is "work." It often produces fringe benefits in the way of good grades or money or other evidence of worldly success, and it is great for taking your mind off your other troubles.

So let me close with three wishes, or should I say hopes, for you.

I hope that, just as you have so far, you will find ways and means of coping with or, better still, overcoming the challenges that you will face in the future.

I hope that you will remember Governor Dummer as a place where people really did care about you, even though you may have wondered at times about the way in which they showed it, and that you, too, will be concerned about other people and show it in your way.

And I hope that somewhere, somehow, someday, for some reason, each of you can experience a warm and wonderful feeling like the one you have given me by asking me to be a part of what is, after all, our joint Commencement.

God bless you.

The Drama Club at Governor Dummer has become very popular in recent years. Miss Deborah Craig, the director, and Mr. Doug Guy, the new set director, help to put one production on during each of the three terms. Often the fall production is a melodrama, a musical is performed during the winter, followed up with a comedy in the spring (which is directed by a senior as a spring term project).

Creating a successful production is not an easy task and, in addition to the cast, the crew sees that many crucial things are done both before and during the actual shows. A lighting director and anywhere from two to six assistants compose the lighting crew. Consisting of approximately six members, the general crew does everything from building and painting flats to helping with makeup during performances. The job of costuming is a full-time responsibility, thus someone is placed in charge of this area as well. In order to come off successfully, a production must be a co-operative effort, and the help to build sets, and to assist with the publicity for the production. Subsequently, those involved are able to learn about many facets of drama.

FALL SPORTS

VARSITY FOOTBALL
Talent and Effort Produce Success

Captains Stephan, Thomas, Squires, Callan, Coach Rybicki

Coach Rybicki set the precedent on the first day of practice saying "There is no such thing as a free lunch." The team prevailed with this attitude throughout the season. After twelve players had attended Football Camp in August, the team was in good shape for double sessions before school. A practice tone of high intensity was maintained under the leadership of captains Marty Stephan, Tony Thomas, Dave Callan and Jared Squires.

An inexperienced team with only seven seniors was a concern in the opening game against St. Sebastians. However, these worries were soon dispelled. Tony Thomas's awesome pre-season running attack was hampered by an injury. Marty Stephan maintained his running attack, rushing for 221 yards, 25 carries, 4 touchdowns and two extra points supported by running back Mike Morison.

The BB&N game was another victory for the Governors. The second half was marked by clean execution and constant momentum. Thomas scored first and was set up for another on a Pete Diamond fumble recovery. The final blow to BB&N came in a 54 yard romp late in the fourth quarter. GDA had already established an awesome reputation in rushing, totaling 712 yards in the first two games.

MVP Stephan

Playing undefeated Thayer was a high point in the season. Thayer held a half time lead 7-6. In the second half, the Governors fumbled but regained the ball with one minute to play. Set up by a Callahan reception, Pingree passed to Stephan for the winning touchdown. The Governors' defensive strength became apparent as they held the Thayer team that had averaged 384 yards a game, to only nineteen yards.

The Governors kept pace with the undefeated Groton team until things fell apart in the second half. However, Matt Tomlinson and Peter Brandli both turned in great performances.

The Governors regrouped after the Groton dissaster. Governor pride prevailed against St. Marks. Stephan and Pingree both rushed for T.D.'s while Thomas returned a kick off from the goal line. In the third period, the Guvs experimented with the "pig left" play. Right guard Dave Callan ran 50 yards for a T.D. to finish the scoring.

The last game was by far the best. The Governors destroyed Belmont Hill. The Guvs well-respected defense, consisting of Gary Bostwick, Pete Diamond and captain Squires held Belmont Hill to an unbelievable -3 yards. Stephan and Thomas each rushed 90 yards and Q.B. Jon Pingree closed out the season hitting 5 of 8 passes for 97 yards and three T.D.'s.

Though the covetted championship was not attained, the 1979 Governor Dummer football team had a season they were proud of. Many records were broken, including Stephan's 12 T.D.'s, 80 points and T.D. passes. The team rushed over one mile in seven games, averaging 306 yards a game. With many excellant players returning, led by tri-Captains Gary Bostwick, Andy Morison and Jon Pingree, the 1980 Football team hopes to "GET THAT CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON!"

Good blocking opens way for gain.

FIELD HOCKEY
Spirit And Unity Prevail

Captains Kurtz and Duff

The 1979 Field Hockey Team was one of the best Governor Dummer has had in years. The talent and skill individuals combined with team unity made for a superb combination. The team was consisted of 14 dedicated players. The impenetrable defense consisted of Pam Kurtz, Helen Mackay-Smith, Liz Evans, Heather Perkins and Emily Woolf. The goal was tended by Kathy O'Leary who saved the team many times from closer scores. Creators of the fearless offense were Ashley Van-Etten, Sally Lee, Clarissa Dane, Sue Miller, Tracey Meehan, Antea von Henneberg, Stacey Hayes and Julie Duff. Abby Castle was, once again, elected "the best manager in the league!" Finally, Miss Clark's enthusiasm made for a very enjoyable season as well.

One of the highlights of the season was a game against Groton's undefeated team. The Governors were tied until the last few minutes of the game when Antea shot and scored the winning goal. We also had unforgettable victories over St. Pauls and Exeter whom we hadn't beaten for many years.

MVP's Evans and Duff

Altogether the season was a success with a great amount of team spirit and unity, the players on this team will never forget the special feeling which circulated among us and made it a memorable time.

CROSS COUNTRY
Unity Pulls Team Through

Coach White and Captain Benson

The 1979 Cross Country Team had a rather unusual season. The team tried very hard during practices and meets, but lacked the necessary element for a winning season. If just the amount of effort a team put into the race decided the winner, this year's cross country team might have won every meet. The team's performance will not be remembered by the final record, but rather the hard work and improvements in running made by the team members. Losing every meet was tough for the team, but due to the coaches' enthusiasm, the team retained its unity. Many of the team members broke personal records. The 1979 Cross Country Team was lead by captain Joe Benson, who was the first Governor to cross the finish line in every meet. Doug Leathem also provided strength for the team, finishing second for the team in most races. Mark Woodbury returned to the team for his second year, and he too proved to be an asset. Newcomers who helped the team were Phil Parry, Chris Ginsburg, Dave Ryan,

M.V.P. Joe Benson

Ben Frost, Dave Critics, and Bob DeWitt. The team was young this year so with more coaching and experience it should mature into a successful team.

Many Harriers Improve Personal Records

Captain and MVP Neda Kalhori

The Women's Cross-Country Team did not have a winning season, but all the runners' personal records improved a great deal. The women's team started with six members. But due to a back injury, the team lost Kim Wilson, who was a promising runner. However, Kim stayed with the team as manager. Because of the smallness of the team, we worked much harder and were supported by Coach White and Coach Sargent.

As expected from her previous performances, Neda Kalhori ran consistently well. Being the team captain, she always encouraged the girls to run their best. Another exceptional runner was Danielle Schwartz. She started the season near the end of the pack, but by the end of the races she was placing well against some excellent teams. The Women's Cross-Country Team looks forward to coming years with Danielle.

The future looks bright for Women's Cross-Country. With continued improvement and help from coaches White and Sargent, prospects look good. We wish Captain Kim Wilson the best of luck!

Coach White

SOCCER
Rebuilding Year Nets Fourth

Captains Jones, Cavanaugh
Coach Mulligan

The 1980 Varsity Men's Soccer team accomplished an overall winning season, a feat which has not been accomplished in many years. The 4-4-2 league standing proved to be surprisingly competitive. The team ended up in the Gummere Cup fourth position, one game away from second spot.

Great interest, pep, and willingness shown by coaches Mulligan and Cole proved to be key factors to the success of the team. They provided renewed spirit to all involved.

The team had problems finding a goal tender until Randy Pendleton, a superior midfielder, was asked to fill the goalie position. Randy, who had never had any experience in the goal, showed surprising talent and aggression.

Peter Cavanagh was the tower of the defense but able to play all positions on the field. Cavanagh, Sadeghi and Tommasi were certainly one of the finest defensive lines in the league. Tony Tommasi, a very talented player and strong leader, will help head Coach Mulligan lead a winning team next year.

The offensive line was lead by Amir Ahari who was selected first line All-Star and M.V.P. Both Amir and Bobby Low had the reputations of the fastest and most dangerous wings in the league. During the Lawrence game, Amir and Bobby burned past the Lawrence defense three times to defeat them in a 4-1 comeback.

MVP Ahari

The 1980 Varsity Men's Soccer team could be characterized by Charlie Atkinson, who was the Navins Cup winner. Charlie's spirit and cheering lifted all spirits and encouraged a winning attitude. The 1980 team was a fresh new beginning to a winning soccer program at Governor Dummer Academy.

"Three to One"

WINNING COMBINATION WORKS

Coach Harlow & Captain Perry

The girls' Varsity Soccer team is a team of the future. The team is young but will improve as they gain experience. The varsity team began with only six returning players, but the addition of many solid players produced a team with a record of 6-4-1. The leadership of captain Sue Perry and the dedication of each player put together a winning combination.

With each successive game, the team became stronger. Unfortunately, the opponents did also. The games lost were never decisive victories for the other team; the team always gave a good fight. We lost to St. Pauls in double overtime by one point. Masconomet, an undefeated team with three times the number of players as the Governors, were held for the first three quarters by a score of 1-1 before our team began to wear out. Our victories over Pingree, Groton, Lawrence, and B.B.&N. showed that the girls were a strong team composed of talent and a desire to win.

One of the best things about the team was that everyone had a good time playing soccer. Everyone got along beautifully, and that is an essential part of a winning season.

M.V.P. Sue Perry

Every member of the team will agree she had a good time this season. With all these aspects of talent, friendship, dedication, and support form our coach, Mr. Harlow, we succeeded in turning even more heads than expected with our winning combination.

Parents Join Us For The Day.

On a beautiful, sunny day last October, GDA held it's annual Parents Day. In the morning, there was an opportunity for parents to talk to teachers about a student's individual progress. Although not every word uttered was supremely complimentary, it was a profitable experience. The morning ended with Mr. Sperry's annual talk to parents of upperclassmen about their sons' or daughters' college plans.

Afternoon activities included a wide program of athletic contests. All in all everyone could not think of a better Parents Day in recent memory.

BASKETBALL

Men's Basketball Takes Championship

Captains Thomas, Callahan.
Coach Tindall

M.V.P. Tony Thomas

The 1979-80 men's Varsity Basketball team had its best season ever by dominating Class C play. The team did not encounter much competition in the league due to the large amount of talent as well as the teamwork involved at Governor Dummer. Tomy Thomas led the team offensively with his large number of moves. Terrence Talley was close behind Thomas in points but dominated the boards in both ends of the court. Dana Jones contributed to the team with his all around consistent play, being in the right place at the right time. Kevin Callahan took charge of the offense and led the team from the foul line. Jared Squires was the big man on the squad, giving added strength under the boards. The jumping abilities of Tod Darden and Mark Rasberry as well as the dribbling skills of Andre La Fleur, Tony Tommasi and Steve Sperry added to the team's outside shooting and team hustle.

The team was blessed offensively, having three games which were 100 or more points in score and numerous others which exceeded 90 points. The offensive power would not have been so great if it was not for defensive strength which the team had stressed during the entire season. The offense was not so strong in competition with some New York teams. One of which was responsible for the team's only loss.

The second most memorable part of the season, second only to the victory over Belmont Hill and the victory against Brooks, was the victory over Thayer during the regular season. This touched off an article indicating that G.D.A. had the best basketball in the state. This in turn spurred news coverage from Channel 5. Reporters came and saw devasting G.D.A. pounce on one of their many opponents. This season was filled with many good exciting moments, but nothing was more exciting than winning the I.S.L. and New England Class C. championships.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Coach Gosselin and
Captain Perry

The 1979-1980 Varsity Women's Basketball season was the best in the school's history. Led by captain Sue Perry, who received the M.V.P. and was selected for the I.S.L. All-Star Team, the team achieved tremendous success. Along with Sue, Ashley Van Etten, who always contributed her share of enthusiasm, got the ball started on the offensive plays. Antea Von Henneburg and Tracey Meehan pulled down the rebounds and sunk the outside shots along the baseline. Concluding the starting five was Sarah Sullivan, who racked up points with fast breaks. These five starters, however, did not do it alone. The second string consisted of Karla Austin, Claire Dober, Joanne Leary, Ann McCullom, Allison Miller, Kitty Rahbany, and Kristen Russell. If not busy adding to the score, the second string was the travelling cheering section, often drowning out the opponent's spectators. Perhaps not enough credit goes to the second string, but without them the team would not have been successful. Mr. Gosselin was as much of the team as the players. Without his help, enthusiasm, and guidance, the team could not have gone as far as they did.

MVP Susan Perry

The 1979-1980 season was excellent. Prospects look good for next year also. The team is only losing one player, and there is more talent on the J.V. squad. With this sort of ability, hard work, and determination, the 1980-1981 team should go even further.

VOLLEYBALL

Veteran Team Does Well

Coach Clark & Captain Lazo

With six returning letter winners this year the Girls on the volley ball team had very high hopes for the 79-80 season. With the help of three new players these aspirations were fully met with a final record of 7-3.

The nine players were all skilled in the basics and were able to work together as a well-knit team. Each player seemed to have a special skill: Captain Benay Lazo and MVP Liz Evans were the team setters and also competed with Sally DeGan for the perfect serving percentage. Vinca Ingram and Cornelia Woodworth astounded everyone with their deadky spikes while Sue Towler and Carol Sterge, as the height of the team, easily blocked the oppositions spikes. Ginger Bushell and Barbara Sheffert were always there to back the others up.

The three games that the girls did lose consisted of two with Milton and one against Dana Hall. All three were definite "Cliff Hangers" that went into overtime in the third game. The players dedication and hard working attitudes were exemplified by this; they were always willing to give total effort up through the last minute.

M.V.P. Liz Evans

The talent of coaches Clark and Cleghorn and the support they gave the team was instrumental in the improvement that was seen in the team throughout the season. They were constantly coming up with new drills and exercises to improve the players' skills.

First Row: G. Bushell, C. Woodworth, B. Lazo, L. Evans, S. Degan. Second Row: Coach Clark, B. Sheffert, C. Sterge, S. Towler, V. Ingram, Mananger J. Bushell

Volleyball, as any spectator will agree, is a very tough game that strains its players both emotionally and physically. The support shown by the faculty and students was well appreciated by the players. Hopefully, with six returning players, all the home games in next years' season will be victories.

Sickness Forms A Bad Season

Coach Abusamra

The 1980 Winter Track season can be summed up as having been disappointing. The team was unable to pick up a victory in a dual meet. Though the mild winter produced perfect weather for track, sickness and injuries were definitely large obstacles. On the plus side, the team did do well at the I.S.L. track meet held at Moses Brown. Mark Woodbury made a fine showing in both the 1,000 yard run and in the mile where he picked up fifth place and a personal record of 5:07. Chris Ginsburg and John Lennon also made good shows in the 600, where Chris placed fifth and John sixth. Bob Dewitt captured fifth place in the two miler with Jim Gardner who brought the team third place and a personal record of 4:46 in the mile. These fine performances helped end the season without total disaster.

The Winter Track team will never be big because of the nature of the sport, but those who do participate on the team represent the school by their competitive spirit. The team should definitely continue to grow in all respects with next year's Captain Mark Woodbury.

HOCKEY

Young Team Excels

Coach Harrington & Captains Stephan & Moheban

M.V.P.'s Pingree, Cavanaugh, Moheban, Stephen, & Benson

This year's G.D.A. Varsity Hockey Team proved to be a strong contender in the Everhart division. The main dilema that the Coach anticipated was who would play where. Coach Harrington also anticipated the 79-80 season as a rebuilding year. This problem never occurred; right from the beginning of the year the team had the discipline and will power to be winners.

The first high point of the season occurred at the Exeter Hockey Tournament. Although the team had had very few practices they finished second in the overall standings. "The team could not win on individual talent alone" said Harrington, "but when put together they played with great poise and hustle." At the winter athletic dinner the Coaches award was given to the whole team which shows how close knit the team was and also the amount of respect between Coach and players. When looking at the 79-80 season the boys will never forget the obstacles the team climbed to be a contender in the league. The hard work and desire of all the players contributed to a very successful and pleasant season for all.

WRESTLING

Grapplers Remain Strong

Callan, Coach Evans, Stafford

The 1980 Varsity Wrestling Team met with another fine season this year under coach Heberton Evans, as Captains Dave Callan and Chris Stafford led the team to an impressive 9-4 record. The Governors began the season well, winning the Christmas tournament with first place finishes from Mike and Andy Morrison, Gary Bostwick, and Dave Callan. But with Chris Stafford sidelined with a shoulder injury and other wrestlers either out of shape or suffering from various illnesses, the team began to falter and their hopes of a league championship seemed to fade at the outset of the season. However, through hard work and team effort the squad quickly rebounded from their early season difficulties and defeated six consecutive teams while making a strong finish in the league standings. Though the team placed a disappointing fifth out of eighteen in the annual Graves-Kelsey Tournament at the close of the year, three wrestlers earned admirable third place finishes at the New England Championships held the following week. Throughout the season, the team made great strides of progress under the leadership of their captains and with the excellent coaching of Mr. Evans.

CROSS COUNTRY SKIING
Skiers Unmatched In Competition

Coach White & Captains Bartlett & Morse

M.V.P. Bill Bartlett

The winter of 1980 at G.D.A. will be remembered by its undefeated X-C Ski team. During the whole season the team did not lose any official meets. The only major difficulty with the season was the absence of any official meets, not to mention the minimal amount of snow accumulation (never more than one inch). Despite the lack of snow the team, worshipping ice cubes and spreading around snow from the Hockey rink, kept practicing. Running was the usual practice, but eccentric ideas kept coming from Coach White, such as spudball, poling in the bowl, skiing on the pond, and even bicycle touring. Since no new experience was gained during this season next year's team will be starting from scratch. However, the team will not be lacking talent; returning skiiers include co-captains David Critics and Sarge Kennedy, as well as Doug Barrett, Dan Cooke, Sherm Horton, Mike Menyhart, and Jamie Stone. The girl's team will not be losing anyone and hopefully will be strong next year. Sue Desautel, Paula Veale, Annabel and Elizabeth Wells will be leading the girls to a more successful season than this year's team. Three seniors are leaving: Bill Bartlett, Bill Brine, and Pete Morse. It is too bad that they could not compete in their senior year; hopefully they will be able to continue skiing in college. The team would like to thank Mr. White for making each practice different and amusing even though it was necessary to practice without ever being able to compete. Best of luck to next year's team with the snow and their meets.

MODERN DANCE

The Modern Dance Troupe had another successful year under the leadership of Ms. Pamela Delgenio. Throughout the two and a half months of rehearsals much talent was discovered and developed. The demonstration shortly before spring vacation was performed before a large crowd and showed the growing interest in Modern Dance as an established art at the Academy. Members of the troupe worked throughout the year for recognition that was deserved by the dancers and the dance program. For the first time, certificates were awarded to the dancers as a symbol of the recognition they received in the demonstration.

SPRING SPORTS

WOMEN'S VARSITY LACROSSE
Teamwork Brings Near Perfect Season

Coach Clark and Captain Duff

A team cannot succeed on talent alone; it is the combination of skill and enthusiasm that makes a team outstanding. The 1980 Women's Lacrosse team was outstanding. There was great individual talent, but, more importantly, there was the enthusiasm to channel the energy of individual skill into a team effort.

Coach Clark made some racidal switches in individual positioning to compensate for the loss of important players from last year's team. Sue Perry changed from saving the goals to scoring them. Not surprising to anyone, Sue concluded the season as one of the highest scorers though it was her first year on attack. Karla Austin filled in for Sue in the net, playing tremendously well, particularly in the Groton game. Mando Meehan deserves special recognition for her contribution as a starting defenseman in her rookie year.

Individually, everyone gave a great deal of themselves, but it was as a team that they performed best.

The two best games of the season were Pingree and Groton. Pingree had beaten them 19-3 last year and there was determination to put them in their places this Spring. This determination pulled GDA through to the top, beating them by one goal in the last two minutes of the game. Although there is always a certain pleasure in beating the Grotonians, it is generally never easy. The half time score of 5-4 reflected a tight match; however, after breaking their momentum in the first few minutes of the second half, the Govs ran away with a 20-10 victory.

The team also had the fun that inevitably results from great team spirit . . . psyche trips to White Farms and MacDonalds for Johnny's Happy Meals . . . team members Fat Sal, Rozanne, Johnny, and Crazy Woman provided the team with their share of laughs.

MVP Julie Duff

Supported by captain Duff and fabulous manager Castle, Miss Clark provided the team with the neccesary leadership for their success. The team owes her a great deal for all the success and fun times they shared throughout the season.

MENS LACROSSE
Didn't Hold Onto It

Chris Stafford, Coach Evans

The 1980 Varsity Lacrosse team had many veteran players coming back, and thus had high hopes. In addition to the returnees there were Kevin Callahan and Jared Squires, who both contributed to the teams success. We started the season with two victories, but were thwarted by Exeter and Holderness in the last minute of play. This type of game was to become common by the end of the year.

A change of outlook was supplied by a sweet victory over St. Mark's; John Goodhart helped us out in this game, as he did all year. A blow-out of B.B.&.N. was a nice addition to our win column. By now some of our regulars had again established themselves. Carl Schwartz was outstanding in net, especially with Dana patroling the grounds. Tony Thomas was now an all around player, along with being a face off artist. Dave Callan, team MVP, was a strong offensive thrust.

Our next game was a disappointing loss to Winchester. Luckily, we rebounded nicely against Lawrence. Chris Staffird, our new attackman (who led the team all year) and Randy Pendleton got the team on track, and worked together nicely on man up the rest of the year. Our winning ways continued to the dismay of our "friends" of Pinkerton and Andover. Again, this team displayed its knack for running hot and cold as we lost to St. Paul's, but beat Nobles. Throughout the year we couldn't seem to hold it all together for very long, and Tabor was the proof. We played a good half, to go up 7-0, but lost 8-7. Our last chance was the alumni, whom we thought were invincible. A good first half, though, brought the victory home.

MVP Dave Callan

This years team had the talent but not the consistency. Better luck next year!

Menyhart's Leadership Units Golfers

Coach McDonnell, Captain Menyhart

By quickly glancing at the Varsity Golf team's record, one would assume that the 1980 season was, at best, disheartening. But because of an undying spirit of unity and the leadership of the coach and captain, the team was able to maintain a good attitude.

The unchallenged leader and captain of the team was Mike Menyhart. Through his consistant play and frequent wins, he won not only the admiration of his own coach and team, but of opposing players and coaches as well. Mike's golfing prowess was perhaps best shown by his second place finish in the I.S.L. Championships.

The heart of the team frequently saw a different order of names, depending upon who was hot and who was not. The second and third spots on the team were occupied almost exclusively by Scott MacGuire and Andy Falcone, but not necessarily in that order. The friendly rivalry that they upheld throughout the year was an inspiring spectacle of sportsmanship.

Another similar rivalry developed between Mark Nichols and Rick Stram, the fourth and fifth players, who exchanged places often. The remaining two players of the regular seven, Chris Frangos and Ben Frost, played well, but inconsistantly.

The team's major fault was that it was unable to combine the individual efforts to win close matches. There were very few matches when more than four of the players performed well. In only one match was the team truly beaten, however, and all other losses were by no more than two points.

MVP Mike Menyhart

Coach Peter MacDonnell was forever encouraging the team, but at the same time pointing out faults in a player's game. With such help, many of the players were able to improve their games. Improvement should continue, for there were no Seniors on the team and only two Juniors. Ben Frost best summed it up with the words, "next year . . ."

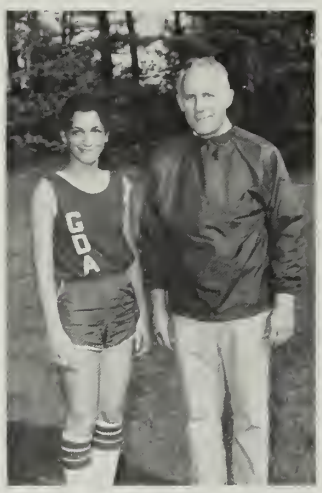
VARSITY WOMEN'S TRACK



Neda Kalhori Coach Sperry

A team of any kind relies upon the mutual support and dedication of its members for its success. A successful track team, however, requires not only this from its members but also the willingness to strive for and support individual achievement.

Even though the Women's 1980 Track Team ended in a .500 season, it possessed the necessary qualities to be considered a successful team. The constant support and effort that was displayed by its members helped keep morale high. Perhaps its closeness too, aided in the performances.

At the beginning of the season, Coaches Sperry and Celia faced the problem of developing a strong group out of only twelve girls - two of which were seniors; Captain Neda Kalhori and distance runner Gretchen Putnam. With some new talent from the lacrosse team and a lot of effort, the team was slowly transformed from a grumbling, muscle-aching group into a cheering enthusiastic bunch of competitors. The peak of the 1980 season was reached at the Inter-Scholastics held in Sheffield, Connecticut. There, teammates Susan Miller, Gail Lattime, Ann Rooney and others placed in their events and the team ranked on the top ten over all. This was an important achievement for the team, but perhaps a greater achievement was attained in their accomplishment of learning to work together as a team.

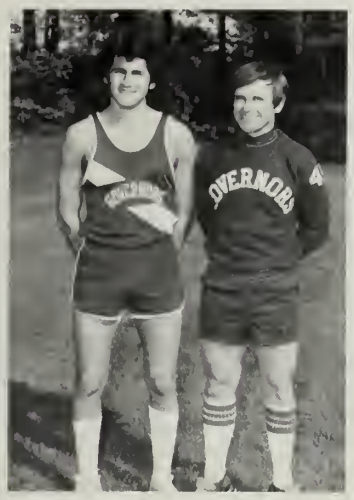
Solid Performances From All



Captain Benson, Coach Rybicki

The Spring Track Team was a big success this year. 1980 saw one of the best track teams GDA has ever produced. Even with the shaky pre-season start and the loss of two senior members, Steve Wall and Pete Diamond to injuries, the team excelled. With coach Rybicki at the helm and a great deal of depth, this team was almost unstoppable. Along with depth there were a few outstanding performers. Dave Shula set a new school record in the triple jump and netted a whole bunch of medals in the New Englands. Steve Sperry won an unexpected third place in the vault and also walked off with the M.V.P. Keep an eye on the track team next year and look for another successful season.

VARSITY BASEBALL

Young Team Gains Experience

Stephan, Coach Metz, Moheban Coach Moonves (missing)

Despite their .500 record GDA's 1980 varsity baseball team was better then average. The team got off to a great start sweeping their first two games but then hit the dreaded hitting slump. Losing seven of their next eight games the varsity couldn't seem to muster up enough hits. Despite this discouraging slump the team kept their morale and played for the .500 season which they did achieve. What does 1981 hold? Well, for a starter, the team is not losing a single pitcher. Since there weren't any senior pitchers the team will be well staffed with more experienced and developed pitchers. Secondly, with the exception of the teams co-captains Marty Stephan and Steve Moheban, the team will not be losing any lettermen. Marty's glove at third base and Moheban's "cannon" arm in centerfield will be missed but coaches Moonves and Metz are sure to find worthy substitutes. The 1980 season was a fun and fairly productive season in terms of wins and losses, but more importantly it was the needed foundation for the upcoming 1981 baseball team.

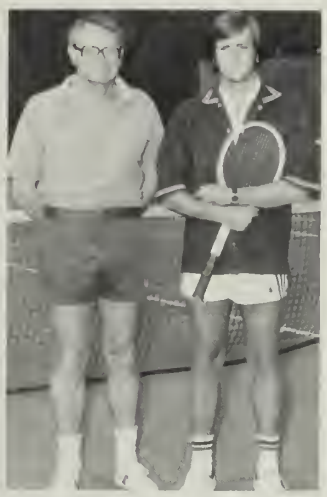
VARSITY TENNIS

Lobsters Come Up Short With Regularity



Coach Rowe and Captain Harrison

The 1980 Varsity Tennis Team was at best consistent. Its play remained constant throughout the season, never faltering or peaking. The eight members, coached by Wallace Rowe, were Co-captains Dean Harrison and Bill Bartlett, Jerome Sweeney, Dave Hatfield, Jay DiOrio, Marshall Rowe, Lisa Louden and Doug Barrett.

The team ended the season with a 1-12-1 record and although they never seemed to get completely off the ground, they were reasonably talented. The team showed promise at the beginning of the season with three returning lettermen in Harrison, Hartfield and Bartlett; two players from last year's JV in Louden and Barrett; two promising newcomers in Sweeney and Rowe; and one discontented baseball player (but feisty competitor) in DiOrio. Unfortunately, however, it was a promise that was not kept. After the Governors tied an always improving M.I.T. Freshman Team, they lost to St. George's. The third match of the season gave the Governors hopes when they defeated Middlesex, but the impetus died there and things just didn't work out for the rest of the season.

Although he was disappointed with the record, first season Coach Rowe commented, "I'll long remember Dean Harrison's humor and booming serves, Bill Bartlett's energy and effort, Sweeney's two-handed consistency and Hatfield's dramatic style."

MVP Harrison

The team came close in quite a few matches losing several times by only one or two sets. Injuries and illnesses ranging from strained backs to chicken pox may have made the difference. Next year's team will have six returning lettermen and under the guidance of Coach Rowe, a serious coach with a good sense of humor, the Governors could be a league surprise.

In May the Junior Class sponsored the First Annual Junior Carnival. Mother Nature did her part by providing us with a beautiful spring day. During the morning everyone was entertained by a great variety of booths and stands organized by various campus organizations. Lunch was a great meal provided by Mr. Sumner and the crew in the quad. The wind really began to blow in the afternoon, however, it didn't stop several fun filled softball games. Hopefully, the carnival will become an established tradition at G.D.A.

Everybody's searching for a hero
People need someone to look up to
I never found anyone who fulfilled my needs
A lonely place to be, so I learned to depend on me
I decided long ago, never to walk in anyone's shadow
If I fail, if I succeed at least

I'll live as I believe
No matter what they take from me,
They can't take away my dignity
Because the greatest love of all is happening to me
I found the greatest love of all inside of me
The greatest love of all is easy to achieve
Learning to love yourself is the greatest love of all

"You're sick of the game!" Well, now that's a shame. You're young and you're brave and you're bright. "You've had a raw deal!" I know-but don't squeal, Buck up, do your damnedest, and fight. It's the plugging away that will win you the day, So don't be a piker, old pard! Just draw on your grit; it's so easy to quit: It's the keeping-your--chin-up that's hard.

"Some destination
A footstep in the sand.
Some indication,
A truth to understand.
I'm going hunting,
To find it if I can.
But it might be just an arrow,
To still some other plan.
Hidden meanings
and love's strange ways
Keep me looking for more and more,
But all I find is that behind
Each new door, is another door."

Christopher Stowens

This year our English Speaking Union exchange student arrived in January, after completing his British secondary training at the Downside School of Stratton-on-the- Fosse, near Bath. His home is near the famous Wimbleton courts in London. He will use his five months at Governor Dummer as a springboard next year to Worcester College, Oxford.

In the short period of five months James has manfully accommodated himself to the colonial idiosyncracies of his peers at the Academy and participated enthusiastically throughout the school: from the class room to the freneticism of the sidelines in basketball or volleyball, to the music program, and most recently to the role of the gentleman caller in John Wise's notable production of Tennesse William's "The Glass Menagerie."

This Honorary Certificate goes with thanks and the best of good wishes to:

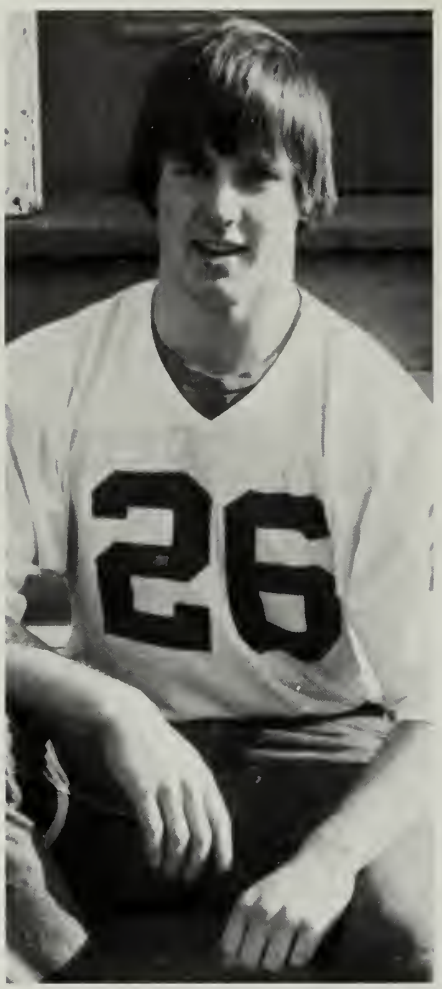
Underclassmen

JUNIORS



Another President Carter?

Jeeze, the darn thing won't light!

This year's junior class is best exemplified by it's class carnival, which was certainly one of the year's greatest displays of school spirit. The juniors, led by Paul Carter, received organisational help from Dabney Friend, Andy Morison, and Kathy O'Leary. The success of the day was 100% as they made $730 and revived a weary school morale. This great accomplishment is a classic example of the energy this year's junior class put into it's many diverse activities.

The juniors made up an important part of many varsity athletic teams. Tony Tommasi led the soccer fullbacks, while Terrence Talley and Sue Perry played major roles on the basketball court. Sue Miller was a lethal weapon in spring track and will continue to do so as next year's captain. Jon Pingree's efforts could not be replaced on varsity baseball, and Dave Brown showed his athletic talent on both soccer and lacrosse fields.

Concerning the fine arts, Rob Breed gave three great piano recitals and Clarissa Dane charmed her audiences with her beautiful voice. Tom O'Dell helped the GDA community understand what electronic music is about with two very interesting pieces. Charlie Bougas was awarded first prize in the photography contest and Sue Plante and Peter Laventis were two of Mrs. Mercer's prime art students. The drama department was swamped with the talent of juniors.

Advanced? Chemistry

Mmm, this one looks like HE might be pretty interesting.

Jenny, Graf and Vinca Ingram excelled in "Death Takes a Holliday". Cynthia Pfeiffer helped make "Pippen" a success and Bekki Dudley was important in all three of this year's productions.

The student council elected Dan Cross as it's vice-president while Mike Morison, Dan Cooke, and Radar put much time and effort into the constitution committee showing their concern for the council. The 1980-81 Governor staff worked very hard on the graduation issue with Abby Castle, Antea von Henneberg, Lynne McCarthy, and Karla Austen doing large amounts of writing. The Spire had it's share of juniors as Beth Mulherrin and Kim Wilson worked hard at their editorial positions. Ben Frost, Sue Desautel, Paul Carter and others made substantial contributions as members of the junior MILESTONE.

"But, he said all he wanted was a refund."

Even after the school year had ended Clare Putnam, David Shula, and Steve Wood continued their German studies on a three week stay in Germany.

The junior class has had active participants in almost all facets of GDA life. While showing their energy and school spirit in many extra-curricular activities they still maintained a very high standard of academics. It is certain that they will make a superior senior class and that they will continue to contribute to the GDA community.

SOPHOMORES

The sophomore year was full of changes for the class of '82. For instance, the class size nearly doubled from 59 last year to over 100 this year. Another change was the formation of individual class government. The class president was Marc Rasbury, the vice-president was Tim Stetson and the class advisor was Ms. Mullen.

There were quite a few sophomores who excelled in sports. Tim Stetson and Bob Low both played on Men's Varsity Soccer. Ann Rooney, Bonnie Perkins and Sally DeGan helped the Women's Varsity Soccer to a successful season. Marc Rasbury and Todd Darden were members of the New England Class C Basketball Champions. Phil Parry and Charlie Sullivan played Varsity Baseball, while Bob Low and Scott Barger were on the Varsity Lacrosse Team.

I'll be darned! Another ninth inning home run!!

As spring time rolled around so did many sophomores - in cars that is - learning their skills at auto school and terrorizing the campus on four wheels. The class performed well academically with a C+ average over all. Steve Boyd, Ann Rooney and Annabel Wells were on the high honor roll all year long. Tim Stetson received recognition for his contributions to the school by receiving the Whittemore Award.

The sophomore class raised enough money by selling food at sports events so that the class went to Crane's Beach for a day in the sun. Although the weather was cold and someone had forgotten to load the soft drinks onto the bus, we had lots of fun cooking hamburgers and hot dogs, and burying each other in the sand. Not everyone came on the bus - a few arrived by boat. This lone trip of the year was the result of numerous meetings and a lot of planning and fund-raising by a few members of the class. More participation by everyone in the class next year could mean more activities to enjoy.

Some sophomores worked themselves to the bone.

The syndrome commonly called "sophomore slump" was not in great evidence this year. The class of '82 should have an exciting and productive year as juniors as we begin to take on a more responsible role in the school. It will be the most important year for all of us so far. Thanks Ms. Mullen for your efforts.

FRESHMEN

The freshman class of 1979-80 was bound to be a great one. As we all look on to our future years at G.D.A. we remember all of the fun things that we did together.

The class of 1983 was by no means dormant. It quickly and readily jumped into GDA life and activities. And it gave the upperclassmen a run for their money.

On our first day together as a class we all met at the Castle of Mr. Foster. He gave us all a tour and then we sat down for our first picnic together. Everyone seemed to be nice and friendly. We all introduced ourselves to each other and enjoyed the rest of the day.

The hard work began the following day with our classes but we still had many more things to look forward to. A couple more days into the school year passed by and the first Friday Night Dance was announced at the school meeting. The week of the dance seemed to go by much slower than usual. Friday night finally arrived and the excitement and enthusiasm was at its peak. The dance was great!

Academically, the year was tough but the class as a whole did well. It never fell victim to the drop in grades GDA predicts for its new students. Individually, Aaron Halpern, Rebecca Riehl, Amy Krukonis and others made the High Honor Roll. Many others made the Honor Roll. Arthur Cohen won the Freshman Class German prize.

A proctor sized boot.

John Silvain and Elea Kemler did a fine job in the music as did Amy Welch who also showed her great intelligence by making High Honor Roll every term. Wow!

In athletics, freshmen varsity letter winners included Andy Barton, Alex Cawley, Danielle Schwartz, and Andre La Fleur. Chris Laganas and Chris Ginsberg earned three varsity letters each.

Socially, the class excelled. The freshmen Disco Dance proved we were fresh but not green. All year long the class turned out in force for school dances and other activities.

The class picnic started out tamely but ended up with fireworks — a fierce balloon fight that pitted the boys against the girls. After a long pitched battle, there wasn't a dry bone in the crowd and neither side could claim victory.

The class adjusted well to the pressures and new found independence at GDA. It was a year of work, adjustment, and accomplishment. Next year promises to be even more productive and entertaining.

CLASS OF 1980, WE ARE IN YOUR DEBT!

Leadership is an elusive quality to define and to compass. Yet in a community like Governor Dummer its presence or absence may make or break a school year. Though it must, of course, be reflected always in the faculty, unless the older classes in the school possess it, too, the Academy suffers.

Sometimes leadership manifests itself primarily in an individual student, or in a small group. When either is so it should be valued and celebrated. Even more to be desired, however, (if seldom attained) is leadership resident not in a few individuals, but in a whole class; difficult to point to, perhaps, and say it lies "precisely there" or "just there"; certainly it does not guarantee no bumps or jolts along the way through the weeks and months.

The Class of 1980 has been just such a force this year, the first in several years to establish in an overall sense, and to the degree that it has, an aura of responsiveness and responsibility.

The whole Academy community is in your debt. Good Luck, and 'Godspeed'.

Mrs. Finnegan Retires

In the world of education the Headmaster knows something about everything; the teachers knows everything about something; and the switchboard operator knows everything about everything.

At the end of this month, after 30 years as secretary, Associate Bookkeeper, and Receptionist, Mrs. Edna Finnegan, the "voice of Governor Dummer", retires.

Tonight, we have for her some gifts. First, from the whole Academy community with love- and may it offer her occasional respite during what I am certain will be an active retirement- this Governor Dummer rocker. The second, the Trustees have purchased for planting at the proper time next year a good-sized red maple to go where one of the red pines came out, to plant it specifically in Edna's honor; and third, since the maple is still gathering strength in its native soil, the Trustees through their representative, Mrs. Shirley French, have had this authentic reproduction of a Jeremiah Dummer silver teaspoon suitably inscribed for presentation tonight. Finally, your faculty friends have put together a purse which we hope will enable you to begin your retirement in good style.

From Mr. Ragle's remarks at Commencement Awards ceremony. June 1980

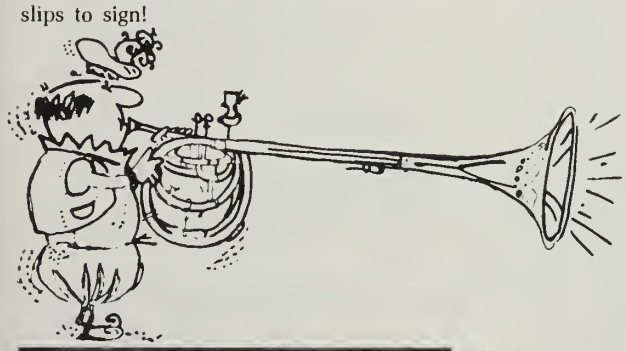
But what will I do? No more weekend slips to sign!

Did you say I don't have to be Dean of Students anymore, Mr. Ragle?



Would you buy a used soccer ball from this pair?

Now, where did I put that Toricellian barometer?

It would have been different if the Armada had had this one.

That's what he thinks!!!

Are you sure he didn't sign this one out?

Absolutely!

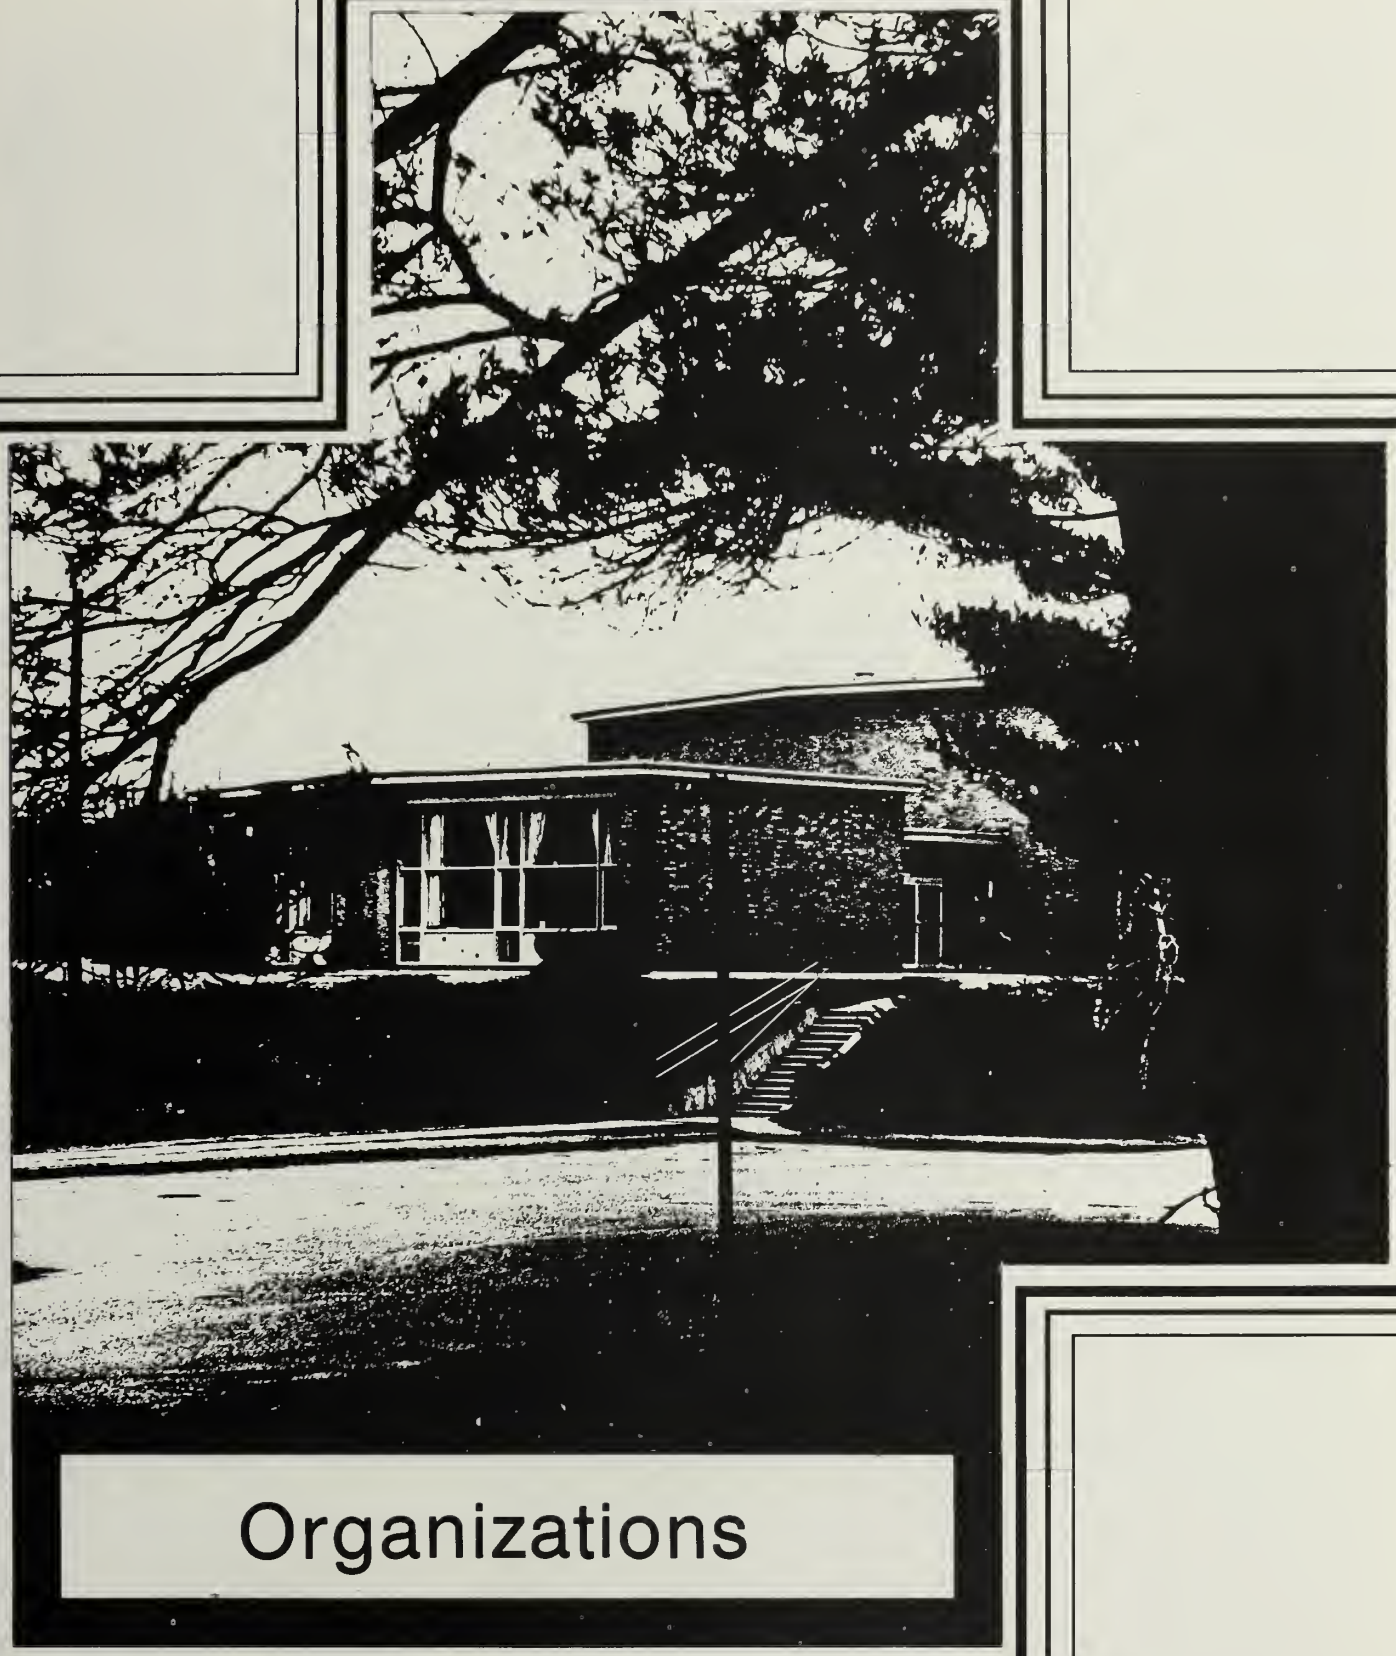
Well, where is it?

Now, you hold on just a minute. I have it right here someplace.



Organizations

THE 1980 MILESTONE

This year's MILESTONE staff started with high hopes. The 1980 MILESTONE was planned to be the best yearbook in recent times. Although the book was not yet completed at graduation, it can be said with some assuredness that it will not live up to the expectations of the staff. Problems arose early on when there was a problem with acquiring the required number of advertisements which were needed to help pay for the book. In the winter, there was a crisis involving subscriptions. Although a list was kept as people subscribed, it was found to be incomplete and was misplaced over March vacation. However, when spring came to Byfield, new problems faced the board. Was the book to be finished on time or would it be ready for publishing next Fall? This is where we are at the present; no one can predict what will happen. But inspite of all the difficulties this year, there are people here early on a Saturday morning who want their yearbook to be a memorable one. Perhaps they will succeed; you the reader will have to judge for yourself.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Community Service Program is as helpful to the community as it is to the students who participate in it. There are a wide range of placements for which one can volunteer. The YWCA pool has volunteers help teach children how to swim. At the Living and Learning Center volunteers help the children, pacify and even entertain them. Community Action is a completely different type of experience. Helpers assist with paper work and go to various welfare recipients' houses to fill out "intakes." Finally, the Nursing Home is an eye-opening place to work. Those who go there visit with the patients and help with the activities.

The people who have been involved with the Community Service Program have found it to be a fulfilling experience.

TURTLE CLUB

THE GOVERNOR

The 1980 Governor Staff was one of the harder working crews on campus this year. From the brief editorial meetings which often stretched much longer than intended (and yet still did not always result in hoped for article ideas), from the noisy staff meetings in Room B to the final product in the mailboxes every month, there were a tremendous number of hours put in.

Steve Moheban's music reviews were an immediate hit on campus, so he moved to Ashley Van-Etten's sports page, and the Sports-Music team was formed.

Scott Mason saw that no one forgot us with his fiery editorials while Erica Baum was a woman of all trades; writing, editing, doing art work, and photography. She was also responsible for providing a comfortable meeting place and refreshments.

Bill Brine, our faithful and fantastic photographer, showed up for every meeting, regardless of whether he had something else to do or not. Jared Squires did not show up for any but always came through with ads and mailings.

Kevin Callahan generally found enough to fill his page, even without every article on it, and he eventually shortened his marathon lay-outs.

And through it all, Helen managed to keep from going crazy; she and Miss Krall prayed often.

The underclassmen were especially helpful this year; there were more contributors than there have been in years. Without Dave Ryan in the business end, Karla Austin doing lay-outs, and Abby Castle doing just about anything, deadlines would never have been met.

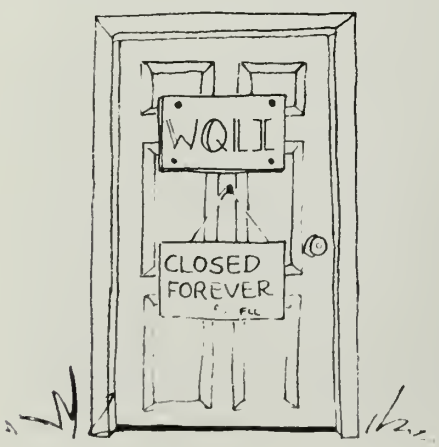
The dinner meetings, especially those at the Steak and Steinn, and just general fun were a large part of our production. But most of all, it was the bond existing in the group that provided the most strength.

TOUR TEAM

First impressions, as everyone knows, are often very important. At Governor Dummer, the first impression a prospective student receives of the school comes from his/her tour guide becomes a very important part of the admission process.

The 1979-80 tour team, headed by seniors Pam Kurtz and Scott Sylvia, has been faced with many challenges this year. Team members have often had heavy loads placed upon them, sometimes giving as many as three tours a week. In other circumstances guides have been asked to give tours with little or no warning. But no matter what the situation, the tour guides always reflect an important image of the school to the prospective student.

RADIO CLUB



The Radio Club was plagued by financial troubles this year and as a result was forced to close down in January. This obstacle, however, did not stop the D.J.'s from broadcasting the first half of the year. Two regular shows went in weekly throughout 1979. "The Bionic-Overdose Show" and the "Mr. Professional Show" starring John Robertson. The "Bionic-Overdose Show" brought the campus hard rock by groups such as The Who, Kiss, and Van Halen while the "Mr. Professional Show" gave time to Punk and New Wave Rock by the Ramones and Devo. Other members who contributed when they had free time were: Peter Laventis, Kim Wilson, Janine Bruce, Paul Carter, Dave Critics, and Technician Jeff Segil. Although "WQLI" is gone now, we hope it will be able to return in the future.

STUDENT COUNCIL

After a late start, the 1979-80 Student Council went right to work. Its first job was to elect the new Junior members of the Discipline Committee. The two new members were elected shortly after Christmas break. The council passed the new Blue Book rule, and sent it off to the administrative committee for approval. The Student Council's main purpose this year was to re-define its purpose and set guidelines for itself and future councils in order that it may operate more efficiently and be able to pass, discuss or override more issues.

The Student Council's officers were well chosen. Bill Bartlett, President, and Dan Cross, Vice-President are veterans to the council who showed outstanding leadership in guiding the Committee.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The Social Committee is a group of students from the junior and senior classes who meet twice a week to organize social events for the student body. The committee choses its members, after they have signed up, on the basis of enthusiasm and willingness to participate in social events. The committee is headed by a faculty advisor, Mr. Gosselin, and a committee elected student president, John Wise.

Among the social activities planned were: Monte Carlo night, record hops, a semi-formal dance, a disco dance, a fifties dance, live-band dances, trips to athletic games in Boston, ski trips, movies and a formal dinner dance held in early Spring.

The Social Committee is highly respected by both the faculty and the students for its ability to uphold school spirit and its continuous organization of school activities.

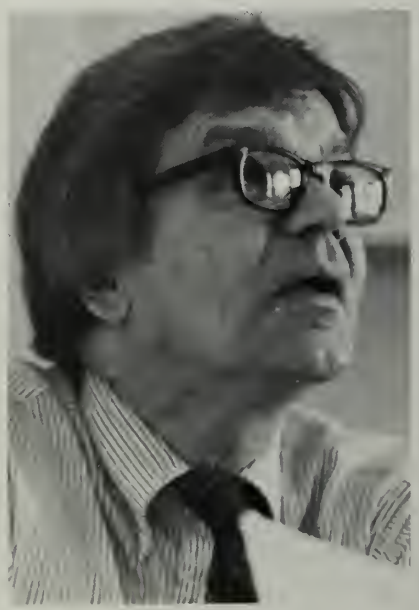
The Red Key is an organization of juniors elected by the previous year's members and by the faculty. The students perform many functions for the school, and are always available when their help is needed. This year's group was coordinated by two seniors, Lia McCarthy and Bill Bartlett, and completed tasks such as serving at teas for visiting sports teams, selling tickets to the drama productions and wrestling matches, and helping out at Alumni Reunions.

Whenever the school needs people to carry out a job, the Red Key is available to help and, well-organized by the leaders, always does.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE

The discipline committee consists of four students, two juniors and two seniors, four faculty members, the Dean of Students, and the Headmaster. The two juniors this year are Jenney Graf and Beth Mulherrin, the two seniors are John Wise and Abner Mason, and the faculty members are Mr. Harrington, Mr. Mechem, Mr. Moonves, and Mr. White. The integrated efforts of the students and the faculty members are an attempt to uphold the standing rules of the community. This is accomplished by considering, as objectively as possible, all the ramifications brought about by an infraction of the academy's rules.



MUSIC

"Art postulates communion, and the artist has an imperative need to make others share the joy which he experiences himself."
Igor Stravinsky

1980 should be remembered as an important stepping-stone for the Governor Dummer Music Department. The department has changed considerably since I entered G.D.A. in 1976. The promotion of Mr. Stowens as music director, and the arrival of Ms. Allen has caused fantastic results. They have worked hard all year to get a highly deserving amount of recognition from the G.D.A. community. A new course, and a new freshman music program have been added to the curriculum. The attendance to performances has increases immensely, and the number of participating students has also greatly improved.

The jazz band consists of twelve members with a well-rounded variety of instruments producing high quality sounds. The Glee Club also has a balanced amount of members for all four parts. There are thirteen members and each member is now more determined to be at rehearsals.

There were three concerts this year, and each time the quality of individual and group performances improved. There were over 35 students involved in the last concert, with a great team work effort on the grand finale "Twilight Zone."

The department has a lot of young talent, and the enthusiasm of each musician has spread all over campus leading G.D.A. towards an even better program in the future.

BLACK STUDENT UNION

BIBLE STUDY FELLOWSHIP

The Bible Study fellowship has grown tremendously in the last few years. The large turn out this year reflects this growth. The informal Wednesday night gatherings led by Ms. Cleghorn and Mr. Tindall always have large groups enjoying songs and discussions.

The three retreats were also very successful, giving students a chance to go off campus and relax.

The Bible Study program was a great success this year. Hopefully, the continued interest will increase next year as well.

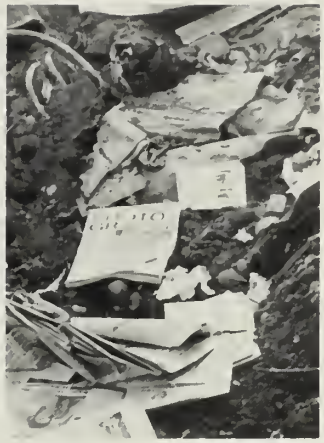
VARSITY CLUB

This year's Varsity Club was very active in raising money to improve our athletic program in any way they can. This year they raised money to buy a new score board. They were so determined, they even were willing to sell themselves into slavery. This year's slave day raised quite a bit of money, highlighted by a +$100 mystery sale!

PHOTO CLUB



GREENHOUSE CLUB

With Sargent Kennedy and Daniel Cross leading, the two year old Greenhouse Club is really growing. (pun?) The club, subsidized by the Allies, is now involved in growing hanging plants for in and around school, and for the Allies of course, to keep the funding flowing. The club is always open to anyone who wants to help us grow our plants or who wants to just grow their own plants.

GERMAN CLUB

This year's German Club was one of the most productive and enthusiastic in several years. Led by President Stefan Wall and V.P. Heinrich Barrett, the club had a very profitable car wash on Parents Day. Another money-raising scheme was the Wurst and near beer sale at the Junior Carnival. Both Bratwurst and Bauernwurst were cooked on an open grill; assorted German cakes and cookies were also popular items. The reason for all of the capitalistic endeavours is the expected exchange trip this summer. A small group of German III students will spend two and a half weeks with German host families while experiencing some real German culture, they will be attending school on a visitor basis.

THE SPIRE

THE SPIRE, Governor Dummer's literary magazine, was lead by Mr. Rowe this year. Those interested in creative writing would meet together and read each others work.

They published Christmas and graduation supplements along with a spring issue.

THE SPIRE has been successful this year in creating an atmosphere where students can relate to their work on a non-academic level. They also received the chance to hear and criticize the writing of others.

OUTING CLUB

The Outing Club is the only organization that allows students to leave the tension of school behind and to experience the indescribable joy felt while at the top.

This year's Outing Club increased in size from the few returning members of last year's club to a more diverse and interested group. The Club expanded its schedule to include several overnight hikes, which drew a surprising number of people as did the Annual Lion Head slide. This year's members see a bright future for the Club, although the leadership of veteran Steve Wall will be missed. Finally, a note of thanks to advisor Mr. Foster, whose talents behind the wheel were indispensible.

FOOD COMMITTEE

Most people in the school are not even aware that the Food Committee exists. But this committee serves the school community in a very positive way. They are the ones who talk to Gene "the Bull" Sumner about the minor problems associated with the cooking and food services at G.D.A. This is a vital function which helps keep the student body happy. There has been much progress in the quality of the food served here this year thanks to the dedicated cooperation of Mr. Sumner. This year's Food Committee, which includes Dave Callan, Andy Morrison, Keller Laros, Joe Benson, and the faculty advisor Mr. Mulligan, has been more than willing to bring forth the complaints, and also some compliments of the students to Gene. This committee should be recognized for their very important function to the community of G.D.A.

Commencement

Morse Flag

The Morse Flag was first awarded 67 years ago at the 150th Commencement of this school on June 9, 1913, and it has been awarded each year since that time to the senior whose record in all respects has met with the highest approval of the faculty. According to the trust established by the late Rev. Glenn Tilley Morse, a long-time friend and Trustee of the academy, a new flag is provided each year in order that the old flag which has flown over the school during the past year may be given to a member of the graduating class.

Some outstanding leaders flash like rockets across the sky, spectacular, seizing the attention of all.

Some, like lighthouse beacons, cast their steady glow, unostentatious but dependable. However leadership makes itself felt - dramatically, emphatically, or quietly by example - it is, in any time and at any place, to be prized.

This year's recipient of the Morse Flag has for three years observed in everything he has undertaken at the Academy a standard which has won him the respect of all who have watched or participated with him.

His achievements cut across the whole spectrum of school life: the classroom - he is a member of the Cum Laude Society and generous with his time in tutoring others; a variety of activities, the Red Key, the Milestone, a senior proctorship for the French Student Center, for instance; in athletics, where he has won six varsity letters in three sports in two years. The other day I visited the student art exhibit in the Parsons Gallery, and two of the most striking paintings were his. Each year he has been here he has won a major award at these pre-Commencement ceremonies. Now, as he graduates, we present him with this pre-eminent prize, this flag - one corner of which, in all fairness, should be shared with his parents, who for years have worn a path southward to Governor Dummer in support of a multitude of Academy events and who next year will be setting their course northward to Bowdoin College:

DANA HAMILTON JONES

Academy Prize

Upon the retirement of Headmaster Ted Eames in 1959 the underclassmen of the Academy endowed the already existing Academy Prize so that henceforth at each commencement it could be given "in honor of Edward W. and Eleanor K. Eames so that the qualities they so deeply prized might be prized in turn by future and succeeding classes." Those visiting the Phillips Building will find inscribed on the paneling outside my office door, in the entry-way of the Cobb Room, the names of all Morse Flag winners, reaching back to 1913, and the winners of this Academy Prize from 1931.

The Academy Prize is awarded to a senior whose unselfishness and sportsmanship have best exemplified the spirit of the school.

My poor powers are scarcely up to recounting the accomplishments and the contributions of this major prize winner. More than three years ago he picked out of the air, by some kind of special magic, Governor Dummer Academy as a school he wanted to attend in New England. In the three years that he has been here he has continued to work that special magic, participating throughout the school, lending a helping hand, forging friendships and earning admiration inside and outside the Academy. He has captained a team, played in the jazz ensemble, worked on the Milestone, been elected to a leadership position in his class, sung, danced, acted, been a senior dormitory proctor, won a National Merit Scholarship letter of commendation - yet, when all is said and done, it is not what he has done, but who he is that really matters. 217 years ago Governor Dummer Academy began to send to Harvard College some of the finest leaders to attend that noble institution, then already well into its second century. In its 217 years this venerable Academy has never sent to Cambridge a truer human being than is the recipient of the Academy Prize here tonight

ABNER AGILIOUS MASON

Thorndike Hilton Cup

The Thorndike Hilton Cup was established by the class of 1919 in memory of their classmate, Thorndike Hilton. It is awarded each year to the ranking scholar in the Senior Class. With this cup goes a silver medal.

As is nearly always the case, the competition this year for the top of the academic rank-list in the Senior Class has been fierce. As it turns out, the young man who has held a slim lead throughout the year has, indeed, prevailed. It has not always been the case that the leading scholar could be recognized at graduation for his participation outside of the classroom; so it is, however, in the Class of 1980.

He has been active in publications, in the Red Key Society and the German Club, in the Government Club and the Chorus; those who have been part of Governor Dummer's championship basketball squads for the past three years - and those of us who have watched - know how key a role he has played as manager for the team. Winner of the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute Medal in his junior year, he is recipient this year for the Thorndike-Hilton award.

FREDERICK HAROLD LONG

Special Prizes

An alumnus of the Class of 1911 at the Academy, father of an alumnus, friend and neighbor of Edward W. Eames for years during the latter's retirement, until their deaths in 1975 within days of one another - and for many years a generous benefactor of the Academy - Milton L. Dodge of Newburyport in his bequest provided for the continuance each commencement-time at Governor Dummer of Special Prizes to be awarded to "members of the Senior Class whose perseverance, courage, initiative, sense of responsibility, loyalty, and/or concern for others have contributed to the strength of the Academy." With gratitude to Mr. Dodge and his family, we award three Special Prizes tonight.

I. A key member of the varsity football team, Co-Captain of the New England Class C Championship basketball team, successful in track through his junior year and then successful in a switch to lacrosse during his senior year, member of the staff of The Governor, of Red Key, of the Commencement Committee, a strong senior dormitory proctor, and an Honor Student - the recipient of tonight's first special prize has, in spite of all the demands upon him, managed to keep everything in perspective throughout his career here at GDA. To paraphrase a comment by his basketball coach - but apply it to his total involvement at the Academy - we could not have asked for another ounce of effort or inch of leadership from him:

KEVIN WILLIAM CALLAHAN

II. The recipient of this next special prize is not only talented in many ways, but both interested in areas which may initially appear to be beyond her natural talents - and successful in developing those interests: she has made herself into a solid field hockey and lacrosse player and developed into a graceful and accomplished dancer, as well as distinguishing herself as a Cum Laude student, holder this year of the Francis Scholarship, and Editor-in-Chief of The Governor. By her participation in a wide range of campus activities and her commitment to whatever she does, she symbolizes the important and integral part that day students can and do play in the school.

HELEN SUSANNE MACKAY-SMITH

III. Senior dormitory proctor, Co-Captain of varsity football and Co-Most Valuable Player; Co-Captain of wrestling and MVP: Chairman of the Food Committee, 2-year letterman in lacrosse; DJ in the Radio Club and Tour Guide, President of the Varsity Club; Honor Roll Student. Some people make their strong contributions in one or two areas of their communities, and they are justly valued for this. That community is fortunate which can boast members whose energies, whose talents, and whose commitment allow them to contribute across a wide spectrum of community life. Happily for us, all three of tonight's Special Prize winners fall into this category - including

DAVID FORREST CALLAN

The Goodwin Athletic Prize

The Goodwin Athletic Prize, established by Mr. Fred H. Goodwin of the class of 1916, a trustee of the Academy from 1916 to 1949, is given to the senior who, by his athletic achievement and sportsmanship, has brought the greatest honor to his school during the past year.

Those of us who were here when he arrived as a freshmen saw a beautifully coordinated, ferocious competitor who even then could "move like a butterfly, sting like a bee." Throughout the Independent School League and beyond, followers have grown accustomed to - though never quite able to believe - his moves on the basketball court: head fakes, changes of pace, darts, dodges, and a pocketful of actions that nobody has yet thought of names for. In his four years here he has lost not one iota of those qualities. Yet it is what he has gained over that period which has multiplied many times his value as a player and made him one of the best team athletes to attend Governor Dummer within memory. Without sacrificing any of his agility and skill, he has gained self-discipline, a mastery of teamwork and, consequently, a rare leadership quality on whatever team he has happened to be playing. Besides a consummate basketball player, he has become a superior football player, Co-Captain and All League; similarly, he has grown to be a wheelhorse on the lacrosse midfield. In the end one must come full circle, back to basketball: his last two years, team Co-Captain; two years, Most Valuable Player; three years, All Independent School League first team selection; and two years, Most Valuable Player in the New England Preparatory School Class C Tournament. We'll miss him - both as an athlete and as a friend

ANTONIO T. THOMAS

The Murphy Athletic Award

The Anne Marie Murphy Athletic Award was established in 1974. It is awarded to that senior girl who, by her example and by her achievement in athletics, has brought high honor to herself and to her school. Most of the outstanding athletes whom I have known have been much more than athletes - not all Rhodes Scholars, to be sure, though some certainly have been; nevertheless, they have been special people for more than their athlectic prowess. So it is with the winner of the Ann Marie Murphy award tonight. The same energy that goes into a charge downfield in field hockey she has evinced as a member of the Social Committee or the Red Key Society; the same teamwork that she displays in lacrosse she shows as a leader of the Varsity Club, or proctor for the French Student Center; the same friendliness that makes her welcome throughout the school captures visiting families whom she tours around the campus or even opponents whom she obfuscates as she darts in to score a winning goal. Desire coupled with talent and as indefatigable willingness to work have made her a superb athlete, admired and sought after well beyond the bounds of the campus. By no means the least of her contributions is a grandmother and a mother - a family - who stand or sit through rain and hail, icy wind and mosquito-ridden heat to root for the Governors' whether in victory or in adversity:

JULIA LOUISE DUFF

The Wilkie Service Award

The Wilkie Service Award in honor of Valleau and Marjorie Wilkie is awarded to a senior whose contributions to the community outside the school have best demonstrated the deep concern, the unfailing sympathy and aid, for which Val and Marge are affectionately remembered.

Governor Dummer's Community Service Program sends, in the course of a year, as many as 40 juniors and seniors, afternoons into Newburyport to assist in service functions. These range from teaching swimming to children in the YWCA pool to helping the elderly. The program is not only good, hands-on experience for the student but, to be honest, reflects well upon the Academy too; for in the great majority of cases we receive warm expressions of appreciation from those served. The Wilkie Service award this year goes to a girl who over a period of two years, often including vacations, has earned universally deep respect and gratitude from the personnel with whom she has worked at Anna Jaques Hospital, the Living and Learning Day Care Center and, most recently the Community Action Center: where her commitment, responsibility and maturity caused the directors to allow her to devise and administer, on her own, a successful Rent-a-Kid program

FRENCH TROPHY

The French Memorial Trophy has been given by his sister in loving memory of Peter Marshall French. It is inscribed each year with the name of a student at any level whose perseverance, sportsmanship and generous spirit on the playing field, regardless of distinction as an athlete, represent the hightest standards of participation.

Easy does it, Bionic!

I guess I have now reached the age when I can admit to myself that - in spite of all the fantasies of my youth - I was never the world's best athlete. Acknowledging this at long last, I can therefore appreciate, perhaps better than most, the achievement of one who in four years at the Academy was never a star, often not even a starting player, but who is always and unfailingly a team player. When he got into the Groton football game this past fall and scored a touchdown, it was a high point for the whole team, the whole school. When in his junior year as a wrestler, the team needed someone to fill in, in weight classes all the way from 133 poinds to 152, he plugged the gap and never quit, no matter whom he was asked to go up against. As a senior he wrestled in the most difficult weight class in the league, against the league's best wrestlers, and he won his share of points. All this he did not so much on talent as on intelligence, courage, and perseverance. The Peter Marshall French Trophy goes to a team player in the best sense of that term, Governor Dummer's "Bionic Man,"

MATTHEW TOMLINSON

GAFFNEY PRIZE

The Gaffney Prize, established in memory of Robert A. Gaffney of the Class of 1940 is awarded to that senior who, in the opinion of the faculty, has been most considerate of the rights, opinions, and sensibilities of others.

Whether devoting a good share of a Saturday to guiding and accompanying an Academy guest both on and off campus; or touring candidates and their families; or, as Co-Chairman of Red Key, acting as hostess for school functions; or in her role as senior, dormitory proctor, kindness, generosity with her friendship and her time, and a talent for work characterize the recipient of the Gaffney Prize tonight.

CORNELIA MCCARTHY

CUMMINGS PRIZE

The Cumings Prize was established by the family and friends of the late Fred T. Cumings of Troy, New Hampshire. It is awarded annually to a student who has shown perseverance, hard work, and good spirit in contributing to the welfare of the school. This year's winner of the Cumings Prize makes his presence felt quietly, but widely throughout the Academy. Co-Captain of two teams, eight times a varsity letter-winner, co-Chairman of Red Key, he was elected by his peers to the Student-Faculty Discipline Committee, to the Student Council, and then to the Presidency of the Student Council and these are but some of his activities. Perhaps most symoblic of the kind of positive influence he reflects were the high spirits maintained on the Cross Country Ski Team - of which he shared the captaincy throughout this past snowless winter.

WILLIAM MERRILL BARTLETT

WILMOT ROBY EVANS GRANTS

Through the generosity of the Wilmont Roby Evans Corporation, a foundation established by Florence Evans Bushee of the Town of Newbury to aid deserving students from Newbury and neighboring communities, this year awards study assistance at Clark University, Princeton University, Cornell University, and Mount Holyoke to four students for 1980-81. Will the following seniors please come up now as a group to accept notification of their awards:

WILLIAM MERRILL BARTLETT, HELEN SUSANNE MACKAY-SMITH, RAND PHILLIP PENDLETON AND EMILY WOOLF.

The Barriskill Prize

The James M. Barriskill Prize, established in 1960 by the students in memory of Mr. Barriskill of the faculty, is awarded annually to that member of the senior class who has made an outstanding contribution to the field of music at the Academy.

I do not remember a more versatile musician in recent years at the Academy. Since her freshman year she has participated in virtually every musical program presented by students: a pianist with the Chamber Ensemble, accompanist, three-year member of the Chorus, percussionist in the Pitt Orchestra for the musicals "Kiss Me Kate" and "Dames at Sea," a player with the Jazz Band in her senior year, and soloist on the piano many times in recitals, she possesses talents by no means limited to music. Co-Captain in her junior year of the J.V. field hockey team, she was a regular on the Varsity this past fall; and she has served this year on the Editorial Board of The Milestones.

EMILY WOOLF

Ambrose Prizes

The Ambrose Speaking Prizes are awarded to those seniors who have shown merit in the speaking contest held each spring. At the Thursday night awards ceremony, the three winners demonstrated the happy outcome of the conjoining of thought with eloquence. In order of Merit - SCOTT MASON, ERICA BAUM, JARED SQUIRES

Best Thespians

The Best Thespian Award is awarded for meritorious work in the field of dramatics, for inspiring participation, providing leadership, and developing theatrical knowledge and abilities. Mark this now! Member, secretary, then President of the Drama Club; member of the student/faculty Discipline Committee and the Student Council; a member of the Milestone photography board; Charlie Brown in " You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," Prince Sirki in "Death Takes a Holiday," and featured player in half a dozen or more major Drama Club productions; dormitory proctor and member of the Commencement Committee; lighting director for a plethora of presentations of all sorts over the past three years in Thompson, and student Technical Director par excellence; twice Co-Captain of the Varsity Tennis team and for two years in a row its Most Valuable Player; entrepreneur of two one-man shows this year, featuring his own exquisite photography. - You're right, these are not one, but two talented artists. This year's best Thespian Award is shared most appropriately between Mr. Stage front and Mr. Backstage.

UNDERCLASSMEN AWARDS

Harvard Prize Book

The Harvard Prize Book, has been endowed by the late Roger B. Coulter, Class of 1913, first winner of the Morse Flag and a former Trustee of the Academy, so that it may be awarded each year in the future. The book is awarded to that member of the junior class deemed most worthy through his high scholarship and character.

A consistently high performer in everything she does, from stage, to playing field, to classroom

CYNTHIA WOODWARD PFEIFFER

The Whittemore Award

The Whittemore Award is made to a member of the sophomore class who through attitude and perseverance has made the best contribution to the Academy. The award is determined by a committee of Seniors and is presented by Dana Jones, winner of this award two years ago.

Scholarships

The Ingham Fund Scholarship was established through the generosity of the family of the late Dr. Carles S. Ingham, former Headmaster of Governor Dummer Academy, in honor of his father, the late Samuel Kellogg Ingham of Saybrook, Connecticut, to help an industrious and able student through the school. A dependable contributor to campus activities - and one of those peerless leaders who, by some miracle brought the 1980 Cross Country ski team through a snowless season in high spirits

DAVID WILLIAM CRITICS

The Francis Scholarship was established by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Francis in June 1941 in memory of their son, Richard Hawes Francis, of the Class of 1936. It is awarded each year to a student of high character who has made substantial progress and who has demonstrated a spirit of cooperation and helpfulness in the life of the school. A good student, a determined learner with high goals, and a top contributor in whatever he does.

GARY BOSTWICK

The Hale Scholarship was established by Dr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Hale in memoriam of their son, Dean Channing Hale of the Class of 1961. It is awarded to that student who, through perseverance, has shown the most improvement in the various aspects of school life and has become an esteemed contributor to the well-being of the Governor Dummer community. To the presidency of his class for 1979-80, he brought the same quiet, effective leadership which he brings to all that he does

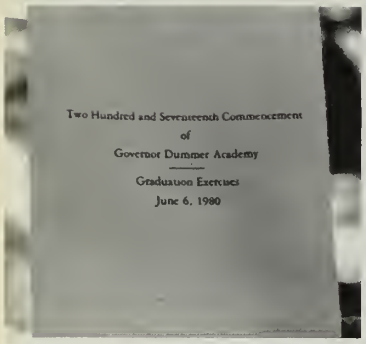
School Resumes : Monday, September 15, 1980 -- New Students
Tuesday, September 16, 1980 -- Old Students



This year's commencement activities were a memorable goodbye for the class of 1980 . . . a mixture of smiles, laughter and tears. Remember the Senior Dinner with Mr. Evans reading from WINNIE-THE-POOH, Mr. Harlow's talk on the stages of growth in the secondary school years and, of course, those superlatives?

Seniors, parents, guests and faculty joined in a senior organized Baccalaureate Service in the chapel, The Reverend Grady Davis of Durham, N.C. spoke on the need for a savior. Mr. Witherspoon sang a moving rendition of the Impossible Dream.

After the High Tea, threats of rain did not deny Dana from receiving the Morse Flag.

At the awards Ceremony, Mrs. Finnegan and Mr. Witherspoon were honored with gifts and two new trees in the quad were dedicated to them.

Scott Mason's speech, looking back at Governor Dummer from the far-distant future, painted images of faculty and growth through personal experiences. All could relate to Erica Baum's referral to the theme of the Wizard of Oz asking for the brains to decide what is the right choice to make, for the courage to follow through with that choice, and the heart so as to understand and love all of it regardless of what happens.

The last dance of the year was followed by a late night for most - packing last minute things, pulling out caps and gowns and maybe a few late night goodbye visits around the campus.

But Friday came at last with doughnuts from Mr. Hager at the Grill. . . . last minute instructions and the news that all 73 "made it".

The seniors gathered behind Commons giving last minute hugs and encouragement, looking odd in their caps and gowns. Finally they marched past the underclassmen and into Commencement.

Mr. Witherspoon's speech was perhaps one of the best of all time, speaking eloquently of the love and friendship only a school like Governor Dummer can give. Before the Seniors took their traditional walk around the Milestone, and the customary leap over the rose garden wall, Miss Cleghorn read an Irish blessing -

. . . and a time to begin!

May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at at your back.
May the sun shine warm on your face, the rains fall soft upon your fields.
And, until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

PRIDE IN QUALITY EDUCATION

Governor Dummer Academy is widely known for its high academic standards and for the excellent learning environment the college preparatory school offers. Its historical beginnings extend as far back as the days of the Massachusetts Colony, when Lieutenant Governor Dummer willed 500 acres to the town of Newbury. We are indeed fortunate to this outstanding educational institution so near. The Newburyport area — a good place to live; the Institution Savings — a good place to bank.

Gimme a G.

Hi! I'm Jason. Bye!

A Note from The Advisor:

July 29, 1980

In the absence of Editors and other members of the Board and Staff, I would like to commend Jonathan Welch for the countless number of hours of work he has put into the production of your yearbook. At the close of the school year there were less than one-third of the two hundred sixteen pages completed. Throughout the past two months Jon has bicycled to school nearly every day - sometimes twice a day - to work on layouts, typing copy, doing photographic work, chasing down articles and advertisements and even writing some articles. He indeed has done a tremendous job in assuring the completion of the 1980 MILESTONE.

During the course of the year as a member of the Staff, Jon earned the Yearbook Achievement Award and was promoted to Managing Editor for his efforts. Since school has let out, his great sense of responsibility and dedication to the book have demonstrated that he has grown beyond this office and, therefore, he has earned the position of Executive Editor.

During the spring, many of you were aware of the efforts that Jim Gardner put into the book for an Athletic Free Term. Without Jim's work this spring, the job this summer might have been impossible to complete. There were many of those beautiful days and early evenings that Jim would have preferred to have been outside with the rest of you. However, he stuck to the job better than might have been expected. Jim will retain the position of Co-Editor as will Abner Mason.

Some things just tend to fall apart toward the end.

Obviously there were many others who helped make this book a possibility. There were those who wrote articles, did photographic work, obtained advertisements, got subscriptions, distributed team pictures, sent out bills or did some of the countless other jobs required. Some contributed much more effort than others. Production of a yearbook seems to require that some people do more than just their assignments. Fortunately, there have been some who have done so and this book is a testimony to that. I hope the readers appreciate the efforts of Jon, Jim and those unnamed individuals who did their jobs well and those who went beyond the call of duty. Each person knows how well he or she has contributed. May each of you derive personal satisfaction from this book and profit from the experience of producing it.
